Public Advocate Betsy Gotbaum To Speak at WEG Shabbat Service Friday, May 31st

The Women's Evening Group will hold its annual Shabbat Eve Service at 6:15 p.m. on May 31, 2002. The group's guest speaker will be New York City Public Advocate, Betsy Gotbaum.

Betsy Gotbaum was elected in November 2001 and inaugurated on January 1, 2002. The Public Advocate is an independently elected citywide official, next in line to the Mayor, who is your ombudswoman to cut through governmental red tape. In this role, the Public Advocate answers complaints about people's problems with city government, investigates ineffective agencies and programs, proposes solutions that make government more efficient, and helps communities gain better access to government.

In the course of her career, Betsy Gotbaum has worked in private businesses, not-for-profit foundations and city government. She has advised and assisted three mayors: John Lindsay, Abraham Beame and David Dinkins. She has worked for venture capital firms; and she has run the Parks Department of New York City. In all her jobs, she has been known for shaping innovative programs and building public-private partnerships that deliver more efficient service. To the role of the Public Advocate,

Gala Evening To Honor Barrie Modlin

On the evening of Monday, June 3, 2002, the congregation and its friends will don its most festive attire and gather for a gala dinner, which not only will pay tribute to the years of service of Barrie Modlin, but also will benefit The Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

JTS is a leading Jewish academic institution, located here in New York City on Broadway at 122nd Street. It educates and trains future rabbis, cantors, scholars, Jewish educators and lay leaders for service to the Conservative Jewish community worldwide. The history of the partnership between Park Avenue Synagogue and JTS is a long and honorable one and this annual fundraising dinner is but one of the many ties between the two institutions.

Barrie Modlin joined the family of Park Avenue Synagogue in July of 1981 as its executive director. He leaves this position this summer, but will remain on call as a consultant to both the synagogue and The Jewish Theological Seminary.

120th Annual Meeting of the Park Avenue Synagogue Congregation

How symbolic it is that the congregation of the Park Avenue Synagogue will assemble for its 120th Annual Meeting just one day prior to the holiday of Shavuot! Does it somehow express our desire to relive one of the most significant experiences (or perhaps stories) in our people's heritage, that of receiving the Torah at Mount Sinai?! Perhaps it will provide an opportunity for us as a community to prepare for re-experiencing the profound meaning of that event as we join together to review our past secular year and then assemble to receive Torah once again!

This annual meeting will take place at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, May 15, 2002, the 4th day of the month of Sivan, 5762. As is the custom at our synagogue, a buffet supper, to which the entire congregation is invited, will be served at 6 p.m.,

Rabbi's Desk

"Much have I learned from my teachers, more from my colleagues, but most of all from my students." (Taanit 7a)

During my years as a rabbinical student, I was profoundly influenced by my teachers at The Jewish Theological Seminary; they instilled in me a love for the study of Jewish text. Since beginning my career at Park Avenue Synagogue, my colleagues have served as my teachers and instructed me as to how to take the text, which I learned as a student, and teach it to others. Above all, I have been very fortunate to truly grow and learn from my students during my first year at Park Avenue Synagogue. From the nursery school through Bar/Bat Mitzvah students and adult learners, my students have challenged me and encouraged me to continue learning and growing.

Shavuot is considered to be the anniversary of the Giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai. Tikkun Leil Shavuot is the custom of staying up the entire night (leil) of Shavuot studying with the community in order to re-experience standing at Sinai. I am looking forward to studying, receiving and learning Torah together with the community.

Jeffrey Stewart Weinstein
May 11, 2002

Jeffrey Weinstein is in the 7th grade at The Dalton School. He began his religious education in the Park Avenue Synagogue Congregational School in the Prozdor grade. At the same time, he attended the Midtown Workmen's Circle Jewish Cultural School and still participates in that organization's annual Workmen's Circle Cultural Seder.

Jeffrey has studied Yiddish privately for the past two years and put his language skill to use at this year's Men's Club Project Ezra Hanukkah Luncheon & Party. In addition, every year, he makes many of the decorative ribbon chains for the Ritter Sukkah. His other interests include current events, interactive computer games, tennis and track.

Jeffrey and his family want to thank the clergy, teachers and staff of the religious school for their devotion, support and kindness during the many hours they contributed to help Jeffrey reach this special day.

was his complete and continued commitment to the ideals of synagogue and Jewish communal life. He expressed excitement over the large population change which has occurred during his tenure as executive director. Now, more than half the congregation is under 45 years of age. The challenge has been, and will continue to be, to serve the growing needs of the congregation, while keeping up with the funding for the increased programming, social and intellectual, in support of the interests of the congregational community.

During the conversation, he complimented the congregation in his belief that it is unique in the Jewish community in regard to its respect for the professional staff. It is a large community of men, women and children who are sophisticated, demanding and a pleasure to work with.

Barrie is married to Leah, a co-founder of the synagogue's Bikur Cholim Committee, and together they are the parents of Adam, who is married to Wendy, and Avery, who is married to Ellen, and the grandparents of Dylan, age two, the twins Jamie and Harrison, age 2½, and the most recent addition to the Modlin family, Shane Andrew.

Alan Levine, who sits on both the JTS Board of Trustees and its Rabbinical School Board of Overseers, and Marcia Eppler Colvin are the dinner co-chairs; Martin Halbfinger, Susan Brous Silverman and Jena Berlinski are the gifts chairs. A commemorative program journal will be published and distributed on the evening. It will feature artwork from the Rare Book Collection of the Library of The Jewish Theological Seminary as well as highlights of Barrie's contribution to the life of our synagogue and the Jewish community.

The large and enthusiastic dinner and journal committees are hard at work to make this evening a complete success. It invites everyone to join in the work and pleasure of the task. A call to the synagogue office is all that is necessary to become a working member of the committee.

Plan to be present at this historic synagogue event on Monday, June 3rd.

From The Rabbi's Desk

How can a student make his/her teacher wiser? For a student to learn, he/she must be willing to ask questions and challenge a teacher. This, in turn, gives the teacher the opportunity to learn as well. The ideal teacher-student relationship is one in which both are in the pursuit of knowledge and truth and neither is interested in merely proving himself/herself right.

The Talmud tells the story about Rabbi Yochanan and his favorite student, and later learning partner, Rabbi Shimon ben Lakish. After Rabbi Shimon's death, Rabbi Yochanan became very despondent, and the other rabbis arranged for Elazar ben Pedat to study with him. Each time Rabbi Yochanan would voice his opinion, Rabbi Elazar would add, "You are right. There are authoritative statements from the Sages that confirm your opinion."

Eventually, Rabbi Yochanan became very upset and said to him: "Do you think you are like Rabbi ben Lakish? Whenever I stated an opinion, Rabbi ben Lakish would raise twenty-four objections to what I said. He forced me to justify every ruling I gave, so that in the end, the subject was fully clarified. But all you do is tell me that you know another source that supports what I am saying. I do not need confirmation of my position (Babylonian Talmud, Bava Mezia 84a). From Rabbi Yochanan's perspective, a student who is always agreeing, and who is too respectful to challenge and question his teacher, causes his teacher to stop growing.

I encourage you to think about a teacher who pushed you to ask questions and pursue knowledge. How did it feel to have such a teacher? Did this teacher have a greater influence on you than other teachers you have had?

Solomon Ibn Gabirol, the Spanish poet and philosopher wrote: "We are wise only while in search of wisdom; when we imagine we have attained it, we are fools." As the holiday of Shavuot approaches, and we celebrate the receiving of the Torah on Mount Sinai, whether we are teachers or students, let's all look for opportunities to learn and to teach and to challenge each other in order to grow in wisdom!

—Rabbi Paulette R. Gross

Annual Meeting

The Chairman of the Board, Geoffrey J. Colvin, will deliver the Annual Report and Rabbi David H. Lincoln, Rabbi Kenneth A. Stern and Rabbi Paulette R. Gross will install into office the newly elected Officers of the congregation, the Board of Trustees and the Advisory Council, as well as the officers of the various arms of the synagogue: Sisterhood, Men's Club, Parents' Association, Women's Evening Group, Nursery School Parents' Association, Family Education and Young Couples' Group. Cantor David Lefkowitz will conduct the memorial service for those members of the congregation who are no longer with us since last year's meeting.

As a world-renowned Conservative congregation, the Park Avenue Synagogue needs the continuing support and involvement of its members in both its daily life and its major events. Therefore, plan to attend this annual meeting and to join the congregation in re-experiencing the meaning of Shavuot beginning the next day, Thursday evening, May 16th through Saturday, May 18th, the 5th through 7th days of Sivan, 5762.

If you intend to come for supper at 6 p.m., please call the synagogue office (369-2600) to let them know you will be coming. We hope to see you there!

Notes From the Edmond de Rothschild Library

Book of the month: "Henry Ford and the Jews," by Neil Baldwin

A visitor to Nazi Party Headquarters in Munich in the winter of 1922 would have immediately observed a large table covered with copies of the German edition of the International Jew by Henry Ford, and a framed photograph of the industrialist-author hanging on Adolf Hitler's office wall. In Henry Ford and the Jews, biographer Neil Baldwin reveals the complex tale of how "Heinrich" Ford promoted a virulent brand of anti-Semitism, disseminating his point of view through a privately-published newspaper, The Dearborn Independent, and how the Jewish American community responded with alarm and courage.

Born on July 30, 1863, Henry Ford was raised on a prosperous farm near Dearbornville, Michigan. His early intellectual growth was dominated by the McGuffey Reader, a popular schoolbook featuring Shakespeare's Shylock, and traditional scriptural interpretations condemning Jews for not accepting Jesus Christ as the son of God. Countless young people of the Populist era absorbed these stereotypical messages but never embraced rabid anti-Semitism. Henry Ford was different.

The same formidable willpower and organizational instincts that led to Ford's renown and success as the inventor of the automobile assembly line, the same obsessive determination and singular focus that created the Ford Motor Company, resulted in the destructive mass production of hate. With America heading into World War I, Ford's media campaign took off and continued well into the 1930's as he published the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, The International Jew, and, for ninety-one consecutive weeks, an uninterrupted series of venomous essays in the Dearborn Independent. Declaring, "I know who caused the war," Henry Ford became even more convinced that these parasites, those sloth and lunatics... apostles of murder, "the German-Jewish bankers" were liable for society's ills. With access to previously unreferenced oral history transcripts, archival correspondence and unpublished family memoirs, Neil Baldwin painstakingly interprets Henry Ford's bizarre statements, erratic deeds and halting apologies. He examines the influential conservative biases of the men at the inner circle of the Ford Motor Company and carefully recounts the painful ideological struggles among an elite Jewish leadership reluctantly pitted against the clout and popularity of the "Flivver King." And he traces Ford's unmistakable impact upon the growing anti-Semitic movement in Europe during the anxious decade leading up to World War II.

Henry Ford and the Jews is the tragic, cautionary story of an American entrepreneur on a misguided mission.

Park Avenue Synagogue Early Childhood Center Applications

Member families who would like to apply to the Park Avenue Synagogue Early Childhood Center for the 2003-04 school year are asked to call the school and request an application form between May 1 and June 30, 2002. (After that date the school will be closed until mid-August.)

All children who were born before April 1, 2001 are eligible for school in September 2003. The Park Avenue Synagogue Early Childhood Center adheres strictly to its cut-off dates. Families who have been active longtime members of the synagogue are given special consideration. However, because of limitations on class size and the need to balance groups in a variety of ways, membership does not guarantee acceptance.

There is an application fee of $40 per child. The application process includes a visit and tour of the school by one or both parents and a separate visit with the child.

For the September 2002 school year there were approximately 45 openings. It will be very helpful to have some idea prior to September as to how many eligible member families are interested in a place for the 2003-04 school term. This will enable us to determine how many applications from new members or non-members we will be able to accept. Thank you for your cooperation.

Thank You From the Parents' Association

The Park Avenue Synagogue Parents' Association would like to thank everyone who participated in this year's Passover Candy Sale.

A special thank you to all the children who worked so hard selling the candy, and to all the parents who helped pack the candy.

This year's favorites were, in order of popularity: Lollycones, Caramel Nut Clusters and Chocolate Covered Marshmallows.

The most popular prize this year was the Activity Box.

Thank you for your continuing support.
